Eloquent Speech.

All communications must be accompanied by the names of the authors, and rejected communications cannot be returned

The following is the conclusion of the speech recently delivered at Harttord, Conn., by Mr. GEORGE H. PENDLETON, of Ohio, undoubtedly one of the first men of this country : But, gentlemen, passing away from this subwhich I have dwelt longer than I intended, let me again call your attention to this fact-that the great poie star of the Democratic party is the Constitution of the U. S. (Applause.) Do not, my fellow-citizens, in the heat of this arduous contest, do not forget that great lesson. The Republican party believe they can amend it; that they can change it and make it a better Constitution than our fathers made it in the days old. ("Never, never," and shouts of applause.) I charge it upon you, Democrats who are here to-night, never consent either to its abandonment or its degradation. Do not seek to amend it; do not seek to change it; do not seek to evade it. Obey it. (Immense applause). It was good enough for your fathers. It is good enough for you. It you obey it, it will be good enough for your children, for a hundred years to come. Study it, understand it. Carry it about with you as a living presence in all the walks of your daily life. Take it to your home; read it to your wife, teach it to your children; put it upon your family altar, that when you bow your head in supplicating prayer it may be there next to the image of God himself. (Immense applause.) Do this, and then in his own good time, you will be able to raise it up to that place and power to which the brazen serpent in the wilderness was raised in order that the plague might be stayed. Do this, and you will be able to rear it up to that high place of honor to which the Ark of the Covenant was reared, round which the unseen legions of the Almighty | pond with me. kept ward and guard, that he who touched it with impious hands should die. (Renewed applause.) Remember, fellow citizens, that the Constitution contains within itself all that is good in the experiences of the past, and all that is hopeful in the prospects of the future. It is the ark of safety in the midst of the flood which is upon us. It may be tossed in the blackness of darkness upon the weary waters rebuild her habitations amidst the scenes of her tormer life. (Cheers.) I do not despair. I have hope in the aspirations of men. I have faith in the Providence of God. I know that the pathway of history is strewn with the wrecks of empires and peoples, and constitutions, and liberty; and it may be in the Providence of God that this country of ours will follow in the wake of all the nations that have gone before. If it shall be so, let it not be owing to the faults or mistortunes of the Democratic party. (Great cheering.) It it must be so let it be known that it was the party of our love that stood to the last, with heroic virtue, to the principles of civil liberty. If it must be so, let us, my fellowcitizens, take consolation in the thought that in the eternal circles of God, death is but the precursor of resurrection; and that the same principles which hasten nations to decay contain within themselves the spark of living fire which secure undying youth to our immortal

race. (Great applause.) "Time writes no wrinkles on its fair young brow;

Such as creation's dawn beheld, it sees thee Amidst the wrecks of time its progress is still onward and upward, higher and still higher. "And from the sky serene and far, A voice falls like a falling star." Excelsior!"

Higher; as the eagle when he takes his flight in the face of the sun. Higher; as the stars, when in their eternal courses they encircle the footstool of the immortal throne! Higher; as the soul of man when it puts aside this tenement of clay, and seeks throughout all the ages the home of its father and its God.

THE TENACITY with which some men cling to life is astonishing. We lately published an account of the Vermonter who survived thirteen years after a tamping iron was driven through his brain. A man is still living in Eastern Ohio whose skull was penetrated by a gas pipe. The notorious Bill Poole lived several weeks with a bullet lodged in the septum of his heart; and a young man named Cryer PURE DRUGS, LEWIS' WHITE LEAD, died the other day at Lexington, Ky., three Paints, Oils and Varnishes, weeks after a bullet lodged six inches within his brain, and another bullet had passed from his back to his abdomen. He retained his sen ses until his death.

HIGH HEELS.—The papers are just now crying out against the high heel shoes, so much worn by ladies, misses and children. The fashion is a very tall and a very small heel, and it | is alleged the gait of the wearer is often affected, and the ankle rendered much more liable to injury. The poor support given to the ankle by such narrow and elevated heels, accounts in part for the peculiar and sometimes awkward walk of those who wear them. Especially is the walk of little children affected by the fashionable shoes put upon their feet.

A private letter received from Brevet Lieut. Col. Welsh, Fortieth U. S. Infantry, commanding post of Waterboro, S. C., states that while engaged in rescuing a colored man from an armed band of negroes, on the 24th of August ult., the Colonel's force of twenty men was attacked by the mob, and a skirmish of several hours' duration ensued. The troops were first fired on, and the Colonel thinks would have been defeated, so great was the disparity of numbers, but for the superiority of their arms

The value of this GUANO is now so wellknown and apprecialed, that it does not require further commendation from us. The Company owns the Guano Islands, and other sources of supply from which its raw material is drawn. Hence, this Guano, possessing ruch high excellence, can be brought into market at a price not exceeding that of the ordinary Super-Phosphates of Lime.

The large capital invested by this Company affords the surest guarantee of the continued excellence of their fertilizer, as the safety of their capital depends upon continued and permanent business.

Experience has shown that this Guano ripens the Wheat crop from five to six days earlier than the Super-Phosphates. It is the policy and purpose of the Company to furnish the best fertilizer that enterprise

ORGANIC WEAKNESS Immediately cured and full vigor restored.

This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety .-Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Consuitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons ondon. Graduate of one of the most emmen Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospit-als of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonish ing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep. great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden the melancholy reflection that the happiness canother becomes blighted with your own. DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased pearance, such as dicerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shinbones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the last of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till doubt puts a period to his dreadful suftion, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thou sands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MF R-CURY, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable. DR. JOHNSON, OFFICE, No. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET, BALTIMORE, MD.,
